For the 13th year, Hall of Fame golfer Beth Daniel will host a clinic Saturday at the Delray Beach Golf Club.

The event, which begins at 11 a.m. and is open to the public, will feature Daniel and U.S. Open champion Meg Mallon.

The LPGA pros "will put on a little show," said Bill Kriews, director of golf at Delray Beach Golf Club. "They will demonstrate different shots and answer questions from the gallery. And a couple of lucky people will be called out of the crowd to get a basic lesson," Kriews said.

There is bleacher seating available and no charge for the clinic, however, donations will be accepted for the Children's Golf Foundation, a local charity to help disabled children. The club is at 2200 Highland Ave. Call 561-243-7380.
